Beefmaster Breeders United Member of the Year Award

The purpose of this award is to recognize the efforts and contributions made to promote BBU Beefmaster Cattle and Beefmaster Breeders United. This award will differ from the Breeder of the Year Award in that it recognizes service to the breed and to the association without regard to the type, size, and management practice of this member's breeding program. Application deadline is July 25.

NOMINATION PROCESS

Any member meeting the criteria as outlined below may be nominated by a Satellite, Marketing Group, or individual BBU member in good standing. Each nomination should contain information substantiating the qualifications of the nominee according to the criteria stipulated for this award. Previous winners of this award may be eligible for nomination again after 7 years.

CRITERIA

The members who are considered for this award must score a minimum of 85 points, with the winner receiving the highest number of points based on the following criteria:

1. Be a member in good standing in Beefmaster Breeders United for no less than 8 years, and should be a member in good standing of the National Cattlemen's Beef Association and/or State Cattlemen's Association for at least 5 years.
 - 5 POINT MAXIMUM
2. Be enrolled in Whole Herd Reporting, Comprehensive Weights & Measures, or Inventory Based Reporting.
 - 10 POINT MAXIMUM
3. Demonstrate outstanding and dedicated service to BBU, their Satellite and/or Marketing Group through service as an officer, director, or committee member.
 - 50 POINT MAXIMUM
4. Demonstrate dedicated service in promoting BBU Beefmaster cattle and BBU, through participation in advertising, filed days, promotion booths, etc.
 - 15 POINT MAXIMUM
5. Understood to be of a high degree of integrity based on honest dealings with fellow breeders and buyers.
 - 20 POINT MAXIMUM
