
JUNIOR BEEFMASTER BREEDERS ASSOCIATION

EST. 1984

Purpose

- To continue the improvement of Beefmaster cattle nationwide

- To promote the six essential characteristics upon which the breed has been developed: Disposition, Fertility, Weight, Conformation, Hardiness, and Milking Ability

- To improve and develop the capabilities of youth, both individually and through group participation, in breeding, raising and promoting Beefmaster cattle

- To develop and improve scholarship, leadership and community interest among young cattlemen

- To acquaint its members with the structure and function of Beefmaster Breeders United

Motto

To promote youth outreach through friendly competition, education and leadership skills while raising, showing and promoting quality Beefmaster cattle for the future of the industry.

JOIN THE JBBA FAMILY!

You'll find a complete and well-rounded slate of programs available to you as a JBBA member.

All aspects of the beef cattle industry are included so JBBA members may gain valuable knowledge about every phase of the business and become better prepared to contribute to the beef cattle industry and agribusiness as adults. And in addition to all that, it's fun!

JBBA was founded in 1984, as more and more young cattlemen became involved in the Beefmaster breed. Its membership has increased steadily, and the number of programs JBBA offers to its members has grown significantly.

JBBA is moving with the Beefmaster breed to the forefront of the beef cattle industry.

TODAY'S YOUTH... TOMORROW'S LEADERS.

Many JBBA members aspire to continue their education at the collegiate level. And thanks to the JBBA Scholarship Program, many of them are able to receive financial assistance toward their college tuition. The JBBA Scholarships are awarded annually on the basis of involvement in JBBA, FFA and/or 4-H, community and civic service. Below is a list of current scholarships offered to JBBA members.

- East Texas/Louisiana Beefmaster Marketing Group
- SEBBA "Hoss Shaw"
