

JBBA Director & Ambassador Program

Overview

The JBBA Board of Directors is comprised of 14 individuals who serve two-year terms and govern the junior organization. Each year, seven new members are elected at the JBBA National Show and Convention. During their term, directors develop and implement programs and events that serve JBBA members. They also represent the Beefmaster breed and JBBA at various industry functions throughout the year. During their tenure on the board, officers and directors will assist with fundraising efforts, program development, member recruitment and more. For more detailed information please check out the Director Responsibility and Role information.

The JBBA Ambassador program is comprised of 7 individuals who serve a one-year term and assist the JBBA Directors and Officers in their duties. The ambassadors are elected each year at the JBBA National Show and Convention after going through an election process. During their year of service, they will get a firsthand glimpse at what it requires to be a leader in JBBA and everything that goes into the program. Ambassadors will represent JBBA at events across the country and serve as role-models to younger JBBA members. For more detailed information please check out the Ambassador Responsibility and Role Information.

Both programs produce excellent leaders and even better young people. If you are looking for a leadership position and want to be more involved in the Beefmaster breed, apply today!
