

Junior Beefmaster Show Exhibitors

In accordance with the rules of the Junior Beefmaster Breeders Association, all cattle exhibited must adhere to the rules stated below, in regards to hair coat and length:

“All animals must be shown with their hair coats lying flat against their entire body. Hair trimming is permissible. Those areas such as the legs, tailhead and portions of the topline of the animal which may not naturally lay flat against the body must be trimmed to be flush with adjacent portions of the hair coat. Hair may not be trained or pulled upwards or forwards. No animals may have any foreign object(s) attached to it in any manner, or have its natural color altered in a manner so as to change the conformation or appearance. An exhibitor who fails to abide by this rule will be dismissed from the arena and/or forfeit premiums, awards and points from the show.”

An experienced judge, who is familiar with the JBBA Hair Rules, will be evaluating heifers prior to entering the show ring. Anyone who does not comply with the rules stated above will not be allowed to show.

Thank you for your cooperation,
